Hillside Suite at Singita Sasakwa Lodge – The Ultimate Private Retreat

April 2019 - In June 2019, Hillside Suite, set on the edge of a cliff, overlooking the endless plains of the Serengeti, opens to guests. With a private access road and all the trimmings of an exclusive retreat, this suite is set alongside Singita Sasakwa Lodge and provides guests with access to the 350,000-acre private Singita Grumeti Reserve in the western corridor of the Serengeti. This double volume private suite is set away from Sasakwa Lodge and allows guests to revel in the barefoot luxury of an infinitely romantic setting.

Dramatic, frameless glass doors and windows, extended outdoor wooden decks and a private rim-flow pool ensure continuous engagement with nature and this butler-serviced suite includes a private game vehicle and Field Guide, and a signature 'bar-deli' filled with delicacies.

Its expansive indoor and outdoor areas are ideal for exclusive dining, as well as a range of relaxing wellness experiences – from yoga to in-room spa treatments and soothing couple’s massages on the pool deck. The suite accommodates two guests and features a master suite, an exquisite bathroom and a kitchenette.

Given its sweeping views of the magnificent scenery and abundant game of the Serengeti, guests can immerse themselves in the surrounding wilderness and be enthralled by incredible sunrises, stargazing and the luxury of absolute silence. With every whim catered for intuitively, Hillside Suite embodies a contemporary wilderness experience unlike any other.

All features are aimed at the utmost exclusivity and intimacy. From stylish interiors with splashes of African art and contemporary design to exclusive in-room dining, it’s the ultimate in understated luxury.

Singita’s 350,000-acre private reserve forms part of the Serengeti Mara ecosystem ensuring Hillside Suite’s proximity to some of the most prized year-round game-viewing on the continent. The suite is the ideal setting for a honeymoon safari in Tanzania, and guests can set the pace of their days by scheduling mealtimes and activities to their liking.

The reserve’s wildlife and ecosystem are protected and managed by the dedicated team at the Grumeti Fund, Singita’s non-profit conservation partner in Tanzania. Since its inception in 2002, the Grumeti Fund has invested funding as well as the commitment and expertise of its team into supporting community partnership programmes.

Rates for Hillside Suite start from US$4,500 per night in Green Season and US$5,950 per night in High Season, accommodating two adults. Includes all meals (in-room dining), drinks, a private safari vehicle and Field Guide, twice-daily game drives, a dedicated host/butler, return road transfers between Sasakwa Airstrip and the lodge. As part of the launch promotion, all stays between 1 June-19 December 2019 also include a soothing 90-minute full-body couple’s massage in the comfort of this spectacular suite.
