4. Singita Pamushana, Zimbabwe

The best there is as far as safari camps go. Located high above a dam with stunning views; a massive private concession where you will spot the 'big five'; and the best design of any safari lodge.

The unique thing here is the safari on the dam where there are many hippos and crocodiles. We visited the local Shangaan village to gain insight into the community's life. We learned to make a fire by rubbing sticks; shot a bow and arrow; made a trap to catch hares; wove baskets; made a kind of pastry and ate it; and then watched the community perform their local dance.
